CHIPS.

Remember Hearts of Oak on Monday night.

The April number of the Contributor is out.

The bunch of keys at the Opera House next week.

The contagious witness, Nellie White, is not yet 20 years of age.

The base ball game, yesterday, resulted in a victory for the Red Boys, the score being 5 to 15.

The delayed trains came in yesterday with the mails, but the D. & R. G. is still several hours late.

The Pleasant Hour Club held its final ball of the season at the Walker Opera House last night. It was a brilliant and enjoyable affair.

The A. O. U. W. completed their work yesterday and went for an excursion to the Lake, which proved to be a most delightful affair.

All members and invited guests of the Caledonia Society are invited to be present at a social and business meeting, at 8 o'clock this evening, at the Social Hall. They may be sure of a pleasant time.

Acting Governor Thomas yesterday issued commissions to Christian N. Lund, as Mayor of Mount Pleasant; Lawritz Lawson and James R. McClannahan, as Justices of the Peace at the same place.

All the ladies of this city who are interested in the temperance question are cordially invited to meet John B. Gough, at 3 p.m. to-day, in the Walker House parlors, for a conference on the question.

When the Marshal was assisting Nellie White into the conveyance that was to take her to the Pen, on Thursday, she asked complacently where were the handcuffs? But she went unfettered to her martyrdom.

The Police Court was exceedingly quiet yesterday, and as Justice Speers was away with the Mayor on the search for water, His Honor Justice Pyper was obliged to inflict the prescriptions of the law upon delinquents.

A herd of over 400 cattle and horses passed through yesterday morning, en route for Farley's Park and vicinity. They had been driven in from Skull Valley, Tooele County, where they wintered, in tolerable fair condition.

Mr. H. E. Fyson, at No. 40 W. Market street (First South) is the sole agent for Utah for the Bohach Insect Powder, which he guarantees as being effective in expelling worms from trees and vermin from the house. See his adv.

The building north of Savage's Art Bazaar is about to be beautified by the addition of a substantial porch, supported on iron columns and extended over the sidewalk. It will provide an agreeable shade to Scrase's bakery establishment.

As Hyrum Barton was driving along Brigham street yesterday afternoon the front wheel of his buggy came off, and his wife and baby and himself were thrown to the road in a heap. Fortunately, the horse stood still and nobody was hurt.

Mayor Sharp and a party made a trip to Dry Canyon yesterday to inspect the springs there with reference to providing water for the people of the north bench. It is probable that water will soon be supplied to that section as a result of yesterday's investigations.

A grand comedy bill will be presented at the Salt Lake Music Hall to-night, consisting of the Cigar Girl of Cuba, a Grand Olio, and the farce, Sudden Thoughts. The seats are offered at bed rock prices, and as there are no other amusements to-night the young people should have a crowded house.

The children of St. Mark's school with their teachers and friends, to the number of over 600, enjoyed yesterday at Fuller's Hill. The day was all that could be desired, and everything passed off pleasantly. This favorite place of resort has undergone extensive alterations and additions, and everything connected with the "Hill" is of a first-class order and well worthy of a visit.

GRAND JURY REPORTS.

Prisons, Public Officials, and Asylum Visited.

In the course of business yesterday in the Third District Court, the Grand Jury presented the following reports of their proceedings thus far, and of their investigations of public institutions:

BUSINESS TRANSACTIONS.

Since being empaneled the present Grand Jury has examined 129 witnesses, made 11 indictments under Territorial laws and 7 under United States laws, and has ignored 11 cases that have not been supported by sufficient evidence. There is still considerable unfinished United States business that will receive attention later on.

The Grand Jury has examined the City and County Jails, the Insane Asylum and the Penitentiary, and submit their reports herewith.

Committees were appointed to examine into the condition of the books and accounts of the assessor and collector, county treasurer and county clerk and submit their reports.

CASES IGNORED.

The following cases were ignored under Territorial laws: William Padlock, L. Greenock, James Marsh, James Macknight, Mary M. Bayle, Eldridge Tufts, Salt Lake; Franklin Hawley, Big Cottonwood; Dan Sullivan, Park City. And the following under United States laws: Richard Rawlins, Cache Valley; Ann Anderson, Salt Lake City.

REPORT ON COLLECTOR'S OFFICE.

We your committee, appointed to examine the books and accounts of the ex-County and Territorial Collector, George Crismon, and the present incumbent of that office, N. V. Jones, beg leave to submit the following report:

That owing to the manner in which the books of ex-Collector George Crismon had been kept it would require five to six months persistent labor on the part of your committee, to make out a balance sheet of the condition of his accounts. Your committee being informed that suits, instituted by the county and Territory, and also by the bondsmen of the said Crismon, are now pending in the Third District court of the Territory, and believing that in the course of said trials the true state of Crismon's accounts will be developed and brought officially before the notice of said court, your committee beg to be relieved from this part of their labor, and discharged from said duties.

On examination of the books and accounts of collector N. V. Jones, your committee find the same to be in proper order and well kept, and beg reference to the attached statement, "Exhibit A," setting forth the amount of Territorial, county and school taxes for 1883, charged against said Jones as collector, the amount collected by him and paid into the hands of the Territorial auditor and County Clerk, and the balance remaining uncollected and standing charged against said Jones $559.55.

In view of the lameness of the law relating to the collection of taxes on personal property, and the laxity of former incumbents of the Collector's office, your committee think that great praise is due to Collector Jones for the promptness with which he has discharged the duties of his office and the manner in which his books are kept.

REPORT ON COUNTY TREASURER.
We, your committee, have made a thorough examination of the books and accounts of the Treasurer's office of Salt Lake county as our time and opportunity would permit, comprising only the term of office of the present incumbent, Mr. M. E. Cummings, from June 28th 1883, to March 1st 1884. And it is the judgment of this committee that Mr. Cummings' accuracy and system of book keeping is above criticism, and that he is a faithful and honest servant of the people.

REPORT ON COUNTY CLERK.
The time allotted the committee was too short to allow a thorough investigation of the County Clerk's books. But from a superficial examination, the books appear to be kept in a clear and concise manner. The committee found the Collector charged with $67,070.12, as shown by the assessment rolls, and credited with sundry payments amounting to $67,109.60, showing an overpayment of $39.48.

REPORT ON COUNTY JAIL.

On April 22d the Grand Jury visited the Salt Lake County jail, and were shown the premises by the jailer in charge. At that time there were four prisoners in the jail awaiting the action of the Grand Jury.

The condition of the County jail is such that the Grand Jury are unanimous in recommending that the place be abolished as a prison or place of confinement for criminals for the following reasons: The jail being in the basement of the County Court House we find the walls and floors damp, some of the cells badly ventilated, and the place filthy beyond description. The prisoners' beds, composed of ticking filled with straw, being damp and moldy from coming in contact with the stone floors, would be sufficient to destroy health, and make the lives of the unfortunate occupants miserable while there.

The Jury would recommend that the county procure a place more suitable for prisoners, having in view the health as well as safety of persons confined therein.

JOHN TIERNAN,
Foreman.

THE CITY JAIL.

The Grand Jury visited the city jail, and with the assistance of City Marshal Phillips and the jailer, were kindly shown through the various departments. At the time of the visit there were nine prisoners confined in the jail, six males and three females. Seven of the prisoners were serving out small fines; one was held for the officials of Davis county; the other was an old man who was there of his own accord, at liberty to go and come when he pleased, and laboring under the belief that the jail is his home. He is of unsound mind.

We take pleasure in reporting that we found the jail clean and well kept, the food good, carefully prepared and wholesome. Adjoining the prison the city furnishes comfortable lodgings free for destitute persons. This we found to be clean and well kept, for which the officials in charge are deserving of the highest praise.

JOHN TIERNAN,
Foreman.

INSANE ASYLUM.

The Grand Jury visited the insane asylum, and were shown through the institution by Dr. Seymour Young, the physician in charge, together with his assistant.

We found fifteen males and eleven females, making a total of twenty-six occupants, twenty-five of whom were persons of unsound mind, mostly of the milder forms of insanity, while but few were considered violent cases.

The Grand Jury are of opinion that with the increasing population of this Territory and the present crowded condition of the Asylum, it would be advisable for the proper Territorial officials to erect a building more suitable for an asylum, and in accordance with similar institutions in the east, embracing all desirable modern improvements.

We take pleasure in stating that we found the Asylum clean and in good order, the inmates apparently well cared for, and the food, so far as we could observe, good, well prepared and wholesome.

JOHN TIERNAN,
Foreman.

Cook to be Cooked.

It is quite generally known that independent thinkers of this city have taken many exceptions to the attacks on Liberalism, by "Rev." Joseph Cook, whose recent visit to this city attracted some attention. Many of the friends of Mr. E. L. T. Harrison have expressed a desire that he should make a reply to some of Mr. Cook's statements, and to further the project it is intended to secure the Opera House on some evening other than Sunday, so as to allow the members of the various churches to attend. The date has not yet been agreed upon, but it will be announced at the earliest moment.

Mr. W. S. Godbe will occupy the chair, and it is hoped that a full house will greet Mr. Harrison on the occasion.

Ed. Murphy's Brethren.

The Knights of Pythias of this division passed the following resolutions in regard to the late Edmund H. Murphy, at their meeting on the 21st inst.:

WHEREAS Our beloved brother, Edmund H. Murphy, a Past Chancellor, member of the Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias of Utah, of Section 298 E. R., of Myrtle Lodge, No. 1, and of this Western Division, has been removed by death from this division to the Supreme Lodge above; therefore be it

Resolved, That in his decease this Division has lost a most zealous and faithful member, his family a watchful, loving and affectionate husband and father, and the jurisdiction a worthy and able exponent of the principles of true Pythian knighthood.

Resolved, that in the death of Sir Knight Edmund H. Murphy we recognize the loss of one who, by his keen sense of justice, his high appreciation of right, and by his fidelity to manhood, exemplified to the highest degree the beautiful tenets of our beloved Order.

Resolved, That we extend to the family of our deceased brother our most sincere, heartfelt sympathy, and with true Pythian pride bid them look for consolation to Him who holds the golden gavel in the Supreme Lodge above, and to the faithful record of true manliness which our brother has left behind.

Resolved, That these resolutions be entered upon the records of this Division and that an attested copy thereof be forwarded to the family of the late Brother Murphy, to the Grand Lodge of this jurisdiction, and that a copy be furnished the press of this city for publication.

GEO. F. PRESCOTT,
W. W. BENNETT,
F. W. GARDNER,
Committee.

After the resolutions were read a very touching and appropriate eulogy was pronounced by Mr. Prescott.

The Society pays $2,000 to the widow.

The Art Show.

The hanging committee were busy all day yesterday preparing for the art exhibition which opens to-day at Calders. By nightfall most of the pictures were hung, and we must say the showing is a fine one. Examples of the best works of seventeen artists comprise the collection and would do credit to any community even larger than ours. It is an interesting thing to note the immense variety of subjects, comprising every branch of painting, while the exhibit of sculpture is of the highest order. Admission to the exhibition is free, and we hope after the trouble these gentlemen have been at, that the public will turn out in force to see the results of their work. The collection will be open to the public at noon to-day and will continue during the following week.

Teachers' Association.

The Teachers' Association of Salt Lake County will meet in the 13th Ward Assembly Rooms, to-day at 11 a. m. The program is as follows: School Government, William M. Stewart; Are Public Examinations? Advisable in our District Schools? Miss Kate Snedaker; Drawing in District Schools, Horace Cummings; Song, A. S. Geddes; Manners and Morals in School, Charles F. Wilcox. Critic, Miss Augusta Winters.

Third District Court.

Proceedings in the Third District Court, on Friday, May 23d, 1884; Chief Justice Hunter presiding:

People vs. Joseph Biddlecrane, murder; trial in progress.

John Kelly, of Scotland, now residing in Salt Lake City was admitted to citizenship.

The grand jury came into court and presented three indictments, one found under the laws of the United States and two under the laws of Utah Territory.

The grand jury filed its report.

Caledonia Society Sociable.

The Caledonia Society will meet in the Social Hall this evening for business and recreation. Books, pictures, parlor games and other opportunities for social enjoyment and instruction will be provided. Members and ladies and invited guests are requested to be present at or before 8 o'clock.

Sessions of the Grand Lodge Closed Yesterday.

The Grand Lodge met at 9 o'clock yesterday morning and was called to order by Grand Master Kinsley.

The installation of officers being the special order, was proceeded with, Supreme Representative E. M. Robinson officiating.

At the conclusion of the installation ceremonies, Grand Master Kinsley was presented with an elegant gold headed cane, as a token of esteem and regard.

The finance committee reported in favor of a per capita tax of 75 cents per term. Adopted.

An alteration was made in the constitutional amendment adopted Thursday, by which not only those who practice polygamy or bigamy, but all who believe in the practice are excluded from membership in the Order.

The session was adjourned to enable all members who desired to enjoy the complimentary excursion to the lake. A short session after the return was sufficient to finish up the business of the lodge.

Every man in the community who is dependent upon his own efforts to earn his daily bread would do well to become a member of this beneficial society, as a protection to his family for whom he may not be able to make any other provision.

A Reporter Tricked.

It is a very unpleasant thing to see a notice in a newspaper that you are dead. No matter of how great or how small importance a man may be in the world, he is not going to be rejoiced when he finds that his family and friends are under the impression that he is no more. This was the state of affairs in the case of John Buckle, the renowned tailor of this metropolis yesterday, the following paragraph having appeared in the Tribune:

John Buckle, the celebrated tailor, died suddenly last evening at 5:30 o'clock, at his store; in fact at his work.

Perhaps there was beer or something stronger, or a cruel practical joke in tailor Stromberg's brain when he gave that bit of false obituary news to a Tribune reporter. But however that may have been, it must be conceded that almost any right minded citizen would hesitate about publishing a premature notice of a man's demise, well knowing he will have more solid grounds to work on if he will wait awhile. If such a notice could be intended for a joke, the perpetrator should be turned over to Dr. Young, that his mental condition might be inquired into.

Sumner Howard.

Hon. Sumner Howard, the newly appointed chief justice of Arizona, arrived in this city from his Michigan home last evening, in company with Mrs. Howard, his son Frank Howard, and his son-in-law A. E. Foote and wife. The party remained at Armijo House last night and took the 3:40 train this morning for Ash Fork, on their way to Prescott. Judge Howard is a man of medium height, weighs perhaps 175 pounds, about 50 years of age, wears a full beard, which is just slightly tinged with gray, and altogether presents the appearance of a man who would be good nature itself. We feel confident our Arizona neighbors will be perfectly satisfied with the new appointee in every way—Albuquerque, (N. M.) Journal.

Looks are deceiving, as the Journal man would soon learn if he were a resident of Arizona while Howard is chief justice.

The experience of years has not detracted from the acknowledged excellence of the qualities of Dr. Price's Special flavoring extracts, but has completely established their hold upon the tastes of all persons who love delicious flavors. If you desire a fine, delicate flavor in cakes, puddings, creams, ices or pastry, use Dr. Price's Flavors.

John B. Gough, accompanied by his niece, Miss Whitcombe, and his secretary, Wm. M. Flynn, of Worcester, Mass., registered at the Walker House yesterday.

We had the pleasure of meeting yesterday Dr. G. B. Sarchet and Mr. McMurphy, of Butte, Montana, both in attendance on the Grand Lodge of the A. O. U. W. They are very pleasant gentlemen, and will be welcome whenever they come.

Young Musicians.

The exacting strain of editorial labors was considerably modified last night by a visit paid THE HERALD office by the Twentieth Ward Harmonica Band, which discoursed some soft and sweet strains of soothing music. The young men are deserving of great praise for their acquirements. The band consists solely of harmonicas, guitars and a triangle, and yet so skillfully are these instruments blended that the listener would suppose that the violin, flute and other instruments were represented. The band consists of Messrs. W. J. Willis, G. W. Lambourne, S. H. Taylor, W. H. Sharp, C. J. Ross, A. F. Angell, J. E. Ellis and A. Charles, and it is a credit to them individually and collectively. May they prosper.

Peoa Points.

Peoa, Summit Co., Utah, May 21.

Editors Herald:

The little daughter of Mr. George Milliner, aged four and a half years, was accidentally drowned in Peoa creek on the 19th inst. and was buried to-day.

The spring is backward; not much over half the grain in; water high and prospects of it going up much higher.

In Lowell, on the business streets, the stores are arranged with some regard to system, the object being to bring traders that depend upon each other into contiguity, and this is most happily effected. For instance, on one street, a liquor store, a coffin shop and a grave-stone manufactory all join each other.
